

If you have a Professor Bear, he will be very impressed if you use any of the following adjectives to describe things.

STUPENDOUS

Meaning:

Amazing; fantastic.

In use:

This is a word an Optabear would use a lot. He thinks most things in life are stupendous!

CATASTROPHIC

Meaning:

Terrible; a disaster.

In use:

Darwin thought it was catastrophic when the press got pictures of him in his dressing gown.

PROFOUND

Meaning:

Deep; thoughtful.

In use:

Rabbit can have profound thoughts, especially when thinking about things like Madrigalism.

IRASCIBLE

Meaning:

Irritable; easily angered.

In use:

Darwin can sometimes be rather irascible – especially when he's hungry.

GARGANTUAN

Meaning:

Huge; gigantic.

In use:

Both Darwin and Rabbit agree that the preferred size of a fruit cake would be gargantuan, although they usually have to make do with medium size.

IMPULSIVE

Meaning:

Hasty; acting without thinking.

In use:

Rabbit can be rather impulsive.

INCONCEIVABLE

Meaning:

Unbelievable; something that can't be imagined.

In use:

Darwin thinks it's inconceivable that Rabbit could be a bear.

INTELLECTUAL

Meaning:

Intelligent; knowledgeable.

In use:

Darwin is intellectual as he knows many things and has read many books.
